Ojika Tour Map

Ojika Island is designated as one of the most beautiful villages in Japan and has recently come into the limelight with its Old Folk House (Kominka) Stay Program. Become an Islander and savor the slow life of Ojika Island.

Pothole

A circular hole formed in the rocky beach by the grinding action of a stone whirled round by the sea water. The round shape of the stone resembles that of a pregnant belly and local women trying to get pregnant come here to pray for a good luck. Locals also joke that the pothole looks like an eye of Godzilla.

Nagasaki-bana Pasture

Cow Watching Points

Hamasaki-bana Golf Course

Goryo Daki Coastal Round Cliff

This semicircular coastal cliff was formed due to the action of waves at the place where a crater existed. A beautiful stretch of sandy seashore dotted with pine trees.

Kaki-No-Hama Beach

A tranquil lagoon with turquoise waters; perfect for paddleboarding and snorkeling.
